What Has Been the Result Since Plan Went Into Effect?

ONE WET VILLAGE DOES GREAT BUSINESS

People Have Discovered That There Is Such a Place as Salem.

Special to The Tribune.

PLEASANT GROVE, July 25 .- The intemperance of temperance has never been better illustrated than by its application in Utah county. In American Fork regardless of regular procedure the town council read their prohibition ordinance once by title and pronounced it passed. Other towns proceeded along similar lines. With such enactments behind them a prohibition warfare of the most bitter character has been waged. Witnesses of absolutely no character have been hired by the authorities, some upon a per diem was a more diem w a per diem wage as appeared in the American Fork cases where two vagrants in jail were hired at four dollars a day to swear to false and fraudulent charges of selling liquor against men of hitherto unchallenged reputation in the community.

Condition in Spanish Fork.

In Spanish Fork men were engaged upon a bonus system of $75 for each tase. So bad was the reputation of the Spanish Fork informers that it dereloped in a recent case that one Fred Boshard was a chicken thief, of which he stood convicted after tran in which it was shown that Zeb Coltrin of the city police had sworn the offenders to secrecy "until after the whiskey cases," in which both Boshard and his own son were to appear as the star witnesses. which both Boshard and his own sonere to appear as the star witnesses, also appears that Boshard was reently convicted of fishing without a liense and fined $25, which was paid by

In American Fork the condition is the same. The star witness in a recent rase against the American Fork Drug Co. was H N. Laursen, who when drawing his warrant for his witness fees stated that he hated to take them "Because I lied."

How It Works Elsewhere.

How It Works Elsewhere,

In Pleasant Grove the mayor, Mr.
Cooper, undertakes to dictate as to who shall and who shall not be permitted to take out merchants' and other licenses.
As in other similar towns, if a person
a non-member, or still worse, a non-tithe paying or dissenting member of the dominant church, applies for license if it in any way competes with the Hedquist, otherwise and formerly the Smoot, Drug Co., no license may be issued unless the Hedquist-Smoot concern shall first decide upon the employees thereof.
Mayor Cooper is an ardent prohibitionist for others, but it is understood that his cellar is at least damp if not wet up to ones shoetops.

Spotters Discredited.

In Spanish Fork the gang of spotters is presently discredited and disorganized. In American Fork they are destroyed for the time being, and the chief propunder of intemperate temperance, Stephen L. Chipman, president of the Alpine stake and promoter of the Metcalf Coal commany, walks the street with Alpine stake and promoter of the Metcalf Coal company, walks the street with his eyes cast down when he meets the victims of his wiles. The widow, blind and helpless, is still minus her cash, and the investment of her baby grandchild is dust and ashes, while Stephen L. has coughed up his piece to the investing bishop of Spanish Fork, but the others threaten to hurry up matters for President Stephen L.

BY RIVERTON RESIDENTS

Special to The Tribune.

RIVERTON, July 25.—Pioneer day was appropriately celebrated here today. The programme rendered was not elaborate, there being just enough doing to keep the crowd, which was estimated at more than 2000, in good humor throughout the day. Promptly at 10 o'clock this morring the big gathering assembled at the grove, where the speech of welcome was delivered by Bishop Gordon S. Bills. There were also a number of musical selections rendered by a quartette. Following this, the Croscent and Riverton baseball teams furnished an entertaining game of baseball, the visitors from Croscent winning by a score of 6 to 7. Foot races and other sports among the younger set were then pulled off.

Things started off with a vim this afternoon. The Buffdale basketball team handed the Riverton players a bunch when they defeated them by a score of 7 to 1. The Riverton baseball team, while attempting to demonstrate its prowess over the Draper nine, was defeated by a score of 4 to 5. Horseback riding by boys was then the feature. Some great stunts were performed by the youngsters, in the saddle and bareback R. Clark roped a wild steer in the open and had it tied in seven minutes. Eath contestant received a prize. A grand ball closed the festivities.

NO CLUE TO ATROCITY

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, July 25.—Sheriff George Judd and Deputy Sheriff Al. Hales are back from Santaquin, where they went to investigate the killing of Mosiah Gunderson, a peaceful and respected citizen so yars of age. The shooting has aroused the people of Santaquin as they have not been aroused in years. Sheriff Judd says that every effort will be made to locate the men but so far no real clue is in sight. According to Mr. Judd, two boys went to the home of Mr. Gunderson about I o'clock Saturday night and made a disturbance, mocking and deriding the old man till he came to an upstairs window and remonstrated with them; at that they fired two shots at the house, one builet striking in the window frame where Mr. Gunderson was standing. The old gentleman then got his shotgun, which was not loaded, and started down stairs. When the boys saw him coming they ran and were followed by Mr. Gunderson for a block and a half. The boys then went behind a tree and from ambush fired two shots, one of them taking effect in Gunderson's left lung and passing out below the shoulder blade.

What Has Result Been?

What has been the result of this local option in Utah country? Salem is a wet village, is three miles from a railroad, is ordinarily clear off the business map of Utah county. Salem is doing more unsiness in proportion to its population and capital than any other town in the county. Horses, buggies, wagons, automobiles speed their way by day and by right to Salem. Is there a dance in that county, a delegation promptly goes a Salem and returns with the goods, aften far more than would otherwise be used. Is there a picnic; then an order from Salem must be obtained. Farmers take their produce to Salem, where the user-chants have money to purchase with and in return the farmer may slake his thirst without fear of arrest. Business that primarily belonged in Spanish Fork, Payson, Santaquin and Goshen now goes to Salem. The youth who drives to Salem the youth who drives to Salem. The lad was riding on the wagon which was loaded with wreckage from the old Lyceum theater which is being removed to make way for a more modern building. In some manner the planks became loose on the wagon causing the boy to lose his hold and he was thrown to the ground. One of the wheels of the wagon passed over his left leg, producing a bad fracture at the ankle. The lad was taken to his home where he has since suffered from three hemorrhages from the head. He is reported to be resting easier this afternoon.

BRIGHAM CITY, July 25.—The celebration of the 24th of July in honor of Pioneer day, was carried out today. The parade was one of the best ever seen in An interurban electric road is projected Brigham City. The parade was a halfmile in length, and many of the largest mile in length, and many of the largest business firms were represented with elaborate floats. The parade was headed by the Brigham military band, and about half way down the line was the Mantia band. Next after the Brigham band came the only two surviving pioneers of 1847 in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Ensign, who were seated in a high carriage. The aged couple were kept busy nodding and dispensing pleasant smiles at the crowds as they waived and applauded, as the pioneers of '47 passed by. Another feature of the parade was a float bearing a reproduction of "the Great Seal of the State of Utah," with its real eagle and beehive, and around about the seal, were a number of little girls. This float was a winner. There were many other original features in the parade. Immediately after the parade a meeting was held in the tabernacle which was largely attended. The following programme was rendered:
